CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

Proposals are due by the close of business, Friday, March 5, 2010

2010 MULTICULTURAL CONFERENCE
MAY 20 & 21
HYATT REGENCY JACKSONVILLE RIVERFRONT

The 2010 Multicultural Conference sponsored by the Florida Department of Children and Families (DCF) is underway. This years theme is, Moving Forward: Explore and Change the Lens with which you View the World. The Conference will focus on five (5) keys areas with an overall approach that demonstrates evidence-based practices for culturally diverse populations in substance abuse treatment and prevention. The five key areas are:

- Family
- Public Health
- Justice Involved
- Co-Occurring Disorders
- How Do We Move Forward

Presentations are generally a total of 90 minutes (1 hour and 30 minutes) in length. In certain circumstances, sessions can be 3 hours in length, determined on a case-by-case basis. Moderators will be assigned to assist you during each session.

Important Instructions:

- DCF continues making significant strides to provide top-notch training events focused on process improvement and evidence-based practices. Workshops submitted for review for this conference will be evaluated strongly on their merit. It is helpful to provide a bibliography for your presentation demonstrating the workshops academic merit and adherence to the evidence-based practices for the culturally diverse populations' focus of the conference. Please note that selection is competitive, therefore all submissions are not guaranteed for acceptance.
- An LCD projector and screen will be provided for each workshop.
- Please include a description of your workshop session (up to 150 words) which would be appropriate to print in the conference program.
- Please provide a short bio and a CV/resume along with the completed speaker profile.

Workshop Materials

- DCF would like to provide all of the conference workshop materials including presentations, handouts, and other materials via the Florida Alcohol and Drug Abuse Association (FADAA) website after the conference. In order to do so, we will need to receive presenter materials no later two weeks prior to the conference.

Compensation

- Compensation includes complimentary conference registration for the presenter. Co-presenters are accepted, however, discounted registration fees will apply if they choose to attend the full conference.
